About the Competition

The Lev Vlassenko Piano Competition is pleased to announce its revised format for the 2021 competition, made possible by the generous support of the Trevor and Judith St Baker Family Foundation.

This will see 12 Competitors selected by audition, present a 90-minute piano recital (with interval) between 18 June and 6 July 2021 in one of three capital cities, (Melbourne, Sydney and Brisbane). This will minimize travel for competitors and aims to avoid possible complications and delays. All will be live-streamed to the Jury and to the general public worldwide.

Three Finalists will be selected and announced on 7 July 2021. Each will perform their nominated piano concerto with Queensland Symphony Orchestra on 16 July 2021 in Brisbane.

The Finals will be judged by three international jury members remotely and all prizes presented that same evening.

The performance schedule will be determined by the Competition before the start of the competition. The order will not be altered except at the discretion of the Jury in case of illness or other special circumstances. Competitors must nominate their closest Competition venue when applying.

The Jury

The Lev Vlassenko Piano Competition Jury will include three eminent Australian pianists for the Recital Round and three eminent international pianists for the Finals.

All members of the Jury will judge the Competition remotely through live-streaming.

Any contestant who makes an attempt (or on whose behalf an attempt is made) to communicate with any member of the Jury before the completion of the Competitor's participation will be subject to disqualification. Decisions of the Jury are final and may not be challenged or otherwise brought into question. If a Jury member teaches or has taught a Contestant within two years of the commencement of the Competition, the Jury member will abstain from voting for that Contestant. A Jury member having given a masterclass to the contestant within six months of the first day of the Competition is also to be deemed to constitute teaching.

Eligibility

The Lev Vlassenko Piano Competition is open to pianists who, on commencement of the Competition on 18 June 2021, are aged at least 16 and no older than 30 (ie. you cannot have had your 31st birthday) and who are permanent residents or citizens of Australia; or are from another nation and have been studying in Australia for at least one year as at 18 June 2021. Previous first prizewinners are not eligible to enter. All Applicants based overseas are not eligible to apply due to current travel restrictions.

Official Piano

The Official Piano of the Lev Vlassenko Piano Competition will be Yamaha's flagship CFX; a full sized 9-foot (275cm) concert grand piano.

Queensland Symphony Orchestra

The three selected Finalists will perform a piano concerto with Queensland Symphony Orchestra directed by a conductor of international standing.

As an arts leader and great Australian orchestra, Queensland Symphony Orchestra is renowned for its high quality, breathtaking performances of both classical and modern compositions that engage audiences of diverse musical tastes, interests and ages.

As one of the largest performing arts company in Queensland and the State's only professional symphony orchestra, Queensland Symphony Orchestra plays a vital role in Queensland's cultural community, educating; mentoring aspiring performers; touring regional centres; broadcasting and performing with state, national and international ballet and opera companies.

Each year the Orchestra attracts the world's best conductors and soloists as part of its acclaimed concert season, in addition to presenting unique blockbuster events. Queensland Symphony Orchestra is passionate about commissioning innovative new programs and Australian works and continues to invest in collaborations, recordings and digital initiatives.

Queensland Symphony Orchestra has partnered with the Lev Vlassenko Piano Competition since the Competition's inauguration in 1999.
